1 PURPOSE OF THIS POLICY

The purpose of the Entec Si Privacy Policy is to state what should be expected when Entec Si collects personal information.

For Entec Si this applies to information collected from the following groups:

- Clients
- Suppliers
- Job applicants
- Current and past employees and associates
- People who contact us
- Visitors to our website

2 LAWFUL BASES FOR PROCESSING DATA

The lawful bases for processing are set out in Article 6 of the GDPR. At least one of these must apply whenever personal data is processed. They are referred to in this policy:

- (a) Consent: the individual has given clear consent for you to process their personal data for a specific purpose.
- (b) Contract: the processing is necessary for a contract you have with the individual, or because they have asked you to take specific steps before entering into a contract.
- (c) Legal obligation: the processing is necessary for you to comply with the law (not including contractual obligations).
- (d) Vital interests: the processing is necessary to protect someone's life.
- (e) Public task: the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.
- (f) Legitimate interests: the processing is necessary for your legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party unless there is a good reason to protect the individual's personal data which overrides those legitimate interests. (This cannot apply if you are a public authority processing data to perform your official tasks.)

3 CLIENTS' PERSONAL DATA

7 PEOPLE WHO CONTACT US

Form of Contact	Comment	Retention Period
Email	Any email and attachments received by Entec Si may be monitored and used by us for security reasons and for monitoring compliance with office policy. Email monitoring or blocking software may also be used. It is the responsibility of the sender of an email to Entec Si to ensure it is within the bounds of the law.	Up to 6 years in case required to defend a legal claim.
Via social media	Remember that even when public messages are deleted, search engines may still retain copies of your public messages and account name.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• LinkedIn: Personal data is kept long as a user's account is open. Data may be kept in an anonymised form after this. Information a user shared with others (e.g., through InMail, updates or group posts) will remain visible after their account is closed or after they have deleted the information from their own profile or mailbox.</li> <li>• Twitter: Twitter keep log data for a maximum of 18 months. Even if tweets are deleted, search engines may still retain copies of your public tweets and account name.</li> </ul>
People who call us including conference calls	We do not record phone calls or conference calls. If we wish to record your call for any reason, such as to generate meeting minutes from a conference call, we will inform you first.	As long as necessary, such as until meeting minutes have been produced. Usually no more than 1 month.
People who make a complaint to us	A file containing the details of the complaint is created in a restricted area of Google Drive. This includes the nature of the complaint and the names of the people involved (including the name of the person who made the complaint). If asked to keep the identity of the person who raised the complaint anonymous, efforts will be made to do this, but it often is not possible, as anyone who has a complaint raised against them will need to be investigated and in doing this the context of the complaint will often need to be shared.	Up to 6 years after complaint closure, in case required to defend a legal claim. It will be retained in a secure environment and will only be accessed according to the 'need to know' principle.

	The personal information provided when a complaint is raised is used by Entec Si to process the complaint and to check on the level of service we provide. We may need to share details of the complaint with our HR data processor, Schofield and Associates. Every effort will be made to discuss the complaint in a form that does not identify anyone, but this may not be possible.
